

MANGABEY - YOU DON'T STOP [APPAREL MUSIC]

Apparel Music, a label with the founding principle of jazzing up electronic music with a more human element, line up French producer Mangabey for their next release. When running the label mantra through our minds we've postulated before that is music really music if there is no sentient emotion attached to it? No one's got back to us, yet. If you know - DM me, lets chat.

Yes we like to get deep, what is our existence if man and woman can't think beyond the here and now? We are no better than our evolutionary primate cousins, the apes and baboons. Of which a Mangeby (or old world monkey) is a part of. Full circle. These existential musings should hopefully go a way to engage your listening experience, conversational percs swing and anchor playful and jazzy chords, upbeat and thoughtful. It's all part of our constant and perpetual evolution, yeah xxxx
